

Robert H. Fairbank

PARTNER

EDUCATION

J.D., New York University (1977)
M.L.S., U.C. Berkeley (1973)
A.B., Stanford (1972)

AUTHOR

California Practice Guide – Civil Trials and Evidence
(The Rutter Group, 1993-2011)

TEACHING

Lecturer of Law
USC Law School (2004-2011)
Stanford Law and Business Schools
(Joint Seminar, 2007)

LEADERSHIP

Board of Directors, Ninth Circuit
Historical Society (2004-2011)
Co-Chair, Ninth Circuit Judicial
Conference Lawyer Reps (2001-2002)
Chair, Civil Trials Subcommittee,
Judicial Council (1990-1992)
President, Association of Business
Trial Lawyers (1989-1990)

RECOGNITION

Super Lawyer (2005-2011)
Southern California SuperLawyers
Magazine/Los Angeles Magazine
Designated a “Go-To Lawyer” for litigation
by a Fortune 500 company,
ALM’s Corporate Counsel Magazine
(2007)
Law Who’s Who
Los Angeles Business Journal (1995)

BAR MEMBERSHIP

California

CONTACT

rfairbank@fairbankvincent.com

Tel: (213) 891-9015
Fax: (213) 891-9011
444 South Flower Street, Suite 3860
Los Angeles, California 90071

Robert H. Fairbank is a co-founding partner of Fairbank & Vincent, a business litigation law firm specializing in litigation and trial work. From 2002-2009, he was independent counsel for the Regents of the University of California in the Enron, WorldCom, AOL Time Warner, and Dynegy federal securities cases. He has also acted as counsel for Boards or independent committees of Boards of Mattel, Semtech, and Techniclon in the investigation or defense of threatened or filed derivative actions. His individual Director and Officer representations have included the Chief Financial Officers of IndyMac Bank, PFF Bank, Homestore.com, and Tenet Healthcare Corporation; Board members of La Jolla Bank, Vineyard Bank, and MetroPacific Bank; and officers of New Century Financial and Fidelity Federal Bank.

Before creating Fairbank & Vincent, Bob was an associate (1977-84) and then partner (1984-96) at Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, where he had extensive experience in “bet-the-company” cases, including a successful antitrust jury trial for defendant National Gypsum, the successful defense of the first two nationwide conspiracy/medical malpractice trials involving National Medical Enterprises (now Tenet Healthcare Corporation), and a series of successful trials throughout the country in the defense of Farmers Insurance Company in one of the first insurance industry hostile takeovers.

Bob has been an adjunct professor at Stanford Law and Business Schools (2007) and USC Gould School of Law (2004-11), teaching a seminar entitled, “Corporate Fraud.” He is also the co-author of California Practice Guide – Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter Group), the leading treatise on California civil trial practice.

Bob has served as the Co-Chair of the Lawyer Representatives to the Ninth Circuit Judicial Conference (2001-02), and the past president of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers (1989-90). He was also a member of the Judicial Council’s Bench and Bar Committee on Local Rules and served as Chair of the Civil Trials Subcommittee (1990-92).

Bob received his A.B. from Stanford University, his M.L.S. from the University of California, Berkeley, and his J.D. from New York University, where he served on the Law Review. In 1995, he was recognized by the first “Law Who’s Who” in Los Angeles Business Journal, which features the 100 most prominent business attorneys in Los Angeles.